LANGUAGE LEARNING (M.A.)

This program is targeted at in-service elementary, secondary, and college-level foreign language teachers interested in ongoing professional development. Students should be advised that it does not provide provisional state licensure (teacher certification), and does not include a practice teaching component. The program can be completed with concentrations in: Arabic, Classics, French, German, Italian, and Spanish.

Admission Requirements

Admission to this program is contingent upon:

1. admission to the Graduate School (http://bulletins.wayne.edu/graduate/general-information/admission), and
2. approval of the Master of Arts in Language Learning (MALL) Advisory Committee (based on the applicant’s academic record, target language proficiency, statement of purpose, and three letters of recommendation).

The Master of Arts in Language Learning degree is offered under the Plan B (essay) option only. It requires a minimum of thirty-three credits in course work, plus a three-credit essay. Course work is divided into three core areas.

First Core

Language, linguistics, literature or culture courses 12

Second Core

LGL 5750 Theories of Second Language Acquisition 3
LGL 5850/7850 Foreign Language Instruction 3
LGL 5860/7860 Assessment in the Foreign Language Classroom 3
