Wayne State University has a rich athletic tradition dating back to the fall of 1917 and recently celebrated 100 years of singular outreach and academic success. The first Detroit Junior College athletic event (precursor of Wayne State University) was a basketball game against the Detroit College of Law on January 19, 1918. Since then WSU student-athletes have captured numerous honors, including national championships awarded by the NCAA and conference championships. In the past ten years, 292 WSU student-athletes have been recognized as All-American. In the 100 year history, 621 students have been so recognized. Over seventy percent (70.23%) of the nearly 400-plus student-athletes currently involved in competitive athletics have a 3.00 or better cumulative grade point average. According to the latest federally mandated report, WSU student-athletes graduate at a seventy-six percent (76%) higher rate than the comparable campus population. The athletic department provides competitive opportunities in the following sports: baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s and women’s fencing, football, men’s and women’s golf, softball, men’s and women’s swimming/diving, men’s and women’s tennis, volleyball, and women’s indoor/outdoor track. Last season, nine out of eighteen programs competed in NCAA championships. In 2012, women’s swimming and diving won the NCAA National Championship joining ten other programs to be so honored. The past sixteen years WSU Athletics has had its sixteen highest ratings in the annual NACDA Cup and in twelve of the past fifteen years finished in the top 12% of the 319 institutions in Division II. The NACDA ranks the top overall competitive intercollegiate athletic programs in the country.
