

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT (GRADUATE CERTIFICATE)

The Graduate Certificate Program in Economic Development equips students with conceptual and methodological tools with which to pursue economic development activities in state, regional and local governments; non-profit and community organizations; private associations such as chambers of commerce; or private businesses and civic institutions engaged in economic development. It is administered in conjunction with the following graduate programs:

- Sociology
- Business Administration
- Economics
- Employment and Labor Relations
- Public Administration
- Urban Planning.

The Certificate is designed for students who wish to combine a graduate degree (master's or doctoral) with a specialty in urban, regional and state economic development. It will be awarded only in conjunction with the completion of a graduate degree or to those already holding such a degree.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must meet the admission standards of the Graduate School. (<http://bulletins.wayne.edu/graduate/general-information/admission/>) Eligibility for this program is limited to persons holding a graduate degree from an accredited educational institution or those actively pursuing a graduate degree at Wayne State University. Applicants must submit a completed application form, personal statement of interest in the program, and Plan of Work.

Program Requirements

Students must complete twelve credits in designated courses, including Core Area I, and courses (at least three credits each) from two of the Core Areas II, III, and IV. At least one course at the 7000 level must be elected, and at least one course (in addition to the Area I course) must be elected from outside the student's graduate program.

Students in the certificate program must maintain a grade point average of at least 3.0. Transfer of credit from other institutions may not be applied toward the credits required for the certificate. If a student is concurrently enrolled in a graduate degree program at the University, no more than nine credits from the certificate program may be applied toward that degree.

Academic Scholarship: All course work must be completed in accordance with the regulations of the Graduate School (<http://bulletins.wayne.edu/graduate/general-information/academic-regulations/>) and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (<http://bulletins.wayne.edu/graduate/college-liberal-arts-sciences/academic-regulations/>).

Code	Title	Credits
Core Area I: Theory and Practice of Economic Development
UP 6550/ PS 6440/ ECO 6650	Regional, State, and Urban Economic Development: Policy and Administration
Core Area II: Economic Development Policy, Politics and Institutions
Business Administration
MKT 7460	International Business
MGT 7750	Managing Employee Relations

Industrial Relations

ELR 7400	Labor Relations Law in North America
ELR 7450	Employment Relations Law in North America

Political Science

PS 6340	Public Sector Labor Relations
PS 7240	Urban Public Policy

Urban Planning

UP 6350	Housing Policy and Programs
---------	-----------------------------

Core Area III: Economics and Finance of Economic Development

Business Administration

FIN 7870	International Finance
----------	-----------------------

Economics

ECO 6510	Advanced Public Finance
ECO 6800/ UP 5820	Advanced Urban and Regional Economics

Urban Planning

UP 6310	Real Estate Development
---------	-------------------------

Core Area IV: Economic Development Management and Analysis Technique

Business Administration

BA 7020	Corporate Financial Management
MGT 7660	Entrepreneurial Management

Political Science

PS 7250	Seminar in Urban Administration
PS 7460	Program Evaluation

Urban Planning

UP 6650	Planning and Development Law
---------	------------------------------

For further information about this certificate program, contact the graduate advisor of the program in which you are enrolled or wish to enroll. Students who are not in a graduate program in applied sociology, business administration, economics, industrial relations, public administration, or urban planning, or who do not already possess a graduate degree in one of these areas, should contact the Department.