The Student Senate is advised by the Dean of Students Office.

The Student Senate has an official advisory responsibility in Vice President for Educational Outreach to represent the extension members, one student representative appointed by the Office of Housing at large elected in a University-wide election, and fourteen appointed State University. It consists of twenty-eight members, fourteen members including the parents helpline: 1-877-WSU-PARENT. The office may be e-available to them to help them help their students be successful, the twice monthly parent and family newsletter and have services Family Services. Through this office, parents and family members receive services to the neighborhoods and businesses in the area surrounding the University.

The Wayne State University Police Department patrols and services the University including the city streets, businesses, and private residences within and between the various campus areas. The Department, to the extent that resources allow, also patrols and provides other police services to the neighborhoods and businesses in the area surrounding the University.

Police service is provided twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. All officers have, at minimum, a bachelor’s degree. They are commissioned as Detroit Police Officers, with full police authority on and off campus, after training at a State-certified Police Academy. Any matter requiring the services of a police officer can be reported at any hour of the day or night.
• Blue Light System — Emergency Telephones (7-2222): The University has installed outdoor emergency telephones throughout the campus. These emergency telephones are identified by bright blue lights.
• Emergencies (313-577-2222): All emergencies should be reported immediately, i.e.: all crimes, missing/stolen property, automobile accidents, suspicious persons, injured persons, vandalism, break-ins or burglaries.
• Accidents (313-577-2222): Ambulatory patients will be transported, by officers, to either Detroit Receiving Hospital or the University Health Center. The Police Department does not provide ambulance service but utilizes the Detroit Fire Department Emergency Medical Service to handle other than minor injuries.
• Fire or Other Extreme Hazards (313-577-2222): Emergencies such as fire, smoke, explosions, broken gas or water mains, severe electrical hazards, etc., should be reported.
• Crime Prevention Section (313-577-6064): The Police Department’s Crime Prevention Section provides a number of crime prevention services, including personal safety seminars, crime prevention programs, and services. Examples of services provided include:
  • Security Services
  • Street Smarts seminars
  • Operation Identification
  • Alcohol Awareness
  • Rape Aggression Defense Training
• The Crime Prevention Section also publishes monthly 'CampusWatch' articles. Email inquiries may be made to: campuswatch@wayne.edu.

Wayne State University has a rich athletic tradition dating back to the fall of 1917 and recently celebrated 100 years of singular outreach and academic success. The first Detroit Junior College athletic event (precursor of Wayne State University) was a basketball game against the Detroit College of Law on January 19, 1918. Since then WSU student-athletes have captured numerous honors, including national championships awarded by the NCAA and conference championships. In the past 15 years, 381 WSU student-athletes have been recognized as All-American. In the 105 year history, 725 students have been so recognized. Over seventy-seven percent (77.45%) of the 400-plus student-athletes currently involved in competitive athletics have a 3.00 or better cumulative grade point average with every team but one having a GPA of at least 3.15 or better. According to the latest federally mandated report, WSU student-athletes Academic Success Rate is seventy-eight percent (78%). The athletic department provides competitive opportunities in the following sports: baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s and women’s fencing, football, men’s and women’s golf, softball, men’s and women’s swimming/diving, men’s and women’s tennis, volleyball, and women’s indoor/outdoor track. During the 2021-22 academic year, 15 out of 18 programs competed in NCAA championships. In 2012, women’s swimming and diving won the NCAA National Championship joining 10 other programs to be so honored. The past 19 years WSU Athletics has had its 19 highest ratings in the annual NACDA Cup and in 11 of the past 14 years finished in the top 12% of the 319 institutions in Division II. The NACDA ranks the top overall competitive intercollegiate athletic programs in the country.

The University competes at the NCAA Division II level, while the men’s and women’s fencing programs participate in the NCAA Collegiate National Championship. WSU student-athletes have served nearly 130,000 community service hours over the last 15 years.

Many new facilities adorn the WSU athletic campus, including the 3,000-seat Wayne State Fieldhouse (shared with the Detroit Pistons G-League franchise Motor City Cruise).

The Harwell Museum which contains numerous exhibits which pay tribute to Ernie’s marriage to Lulu, audio and video of Harwell’s signature calls and moments and the controversial Jose Feliciano national anthem during the 1968 World Series. There are interactive areas where you can listen to other announcer’s great calls, watch Ernie’s farewell speech and read letters written to Ernie. In addition, Harwell Field has a replica Fenway Park outfield fence, Major League size dugouts and through an arrangement with the Detroit Historical Society, the left field scoreboard from the former Tiger Stadium is attached to the base of the left field wall.

The Doris J. & Donald L. Duchene, Sr. Athletic Facility was the first new athletic building in over 50 years on the athletic campus. Completed in the Fall of 2011, the building has 35,000 square feet of space with a maximum ceiling height of 35 feet. Enclosed are four tennis courts, a sprint track (60 yards), locker rooms for the men’s and women’s tennis, and baseball squads along with six offices for coaches and staff.

The nearly 12,000 square foot, state-of-the-art Athletic Performance Center was completed and opened in May of 2018 and gives student-athletes access to 24 work stations.

The softball facility was completed in three phases with the complex paid entirely by private revenue sources. Phase I was completed in 2005 and established the first grandstands and press box. Phase II added a locker room, offices, foyer, training room, restrooms and a new dugout. The final phase (completed in Spring 2013) added batting and pitching cages, and outdoor bullpens. On Nov. 12, 2016, the field was named Gary L. Bryce Field in honor of the long-time head coach with the installation of a new scoreboard. In the weeks preceding the naming of the field, the home run fences were pushed back to accommodate new NCAA guidelines.

The University offers a wide and varied program of recreational and intramural activities. The Matthaei Complex, and the surrounding athletic campus on 43 acres of land, located on the west end of campus, offers a myriad of drop-in activity areas that include courts and fields for basketball, football, jogging, racquetball, soccer, squash, tennis, and volleyball, a weight training/exercise room, and swimming facilities. Use of these facilities is free with a current University ID or with a membership through the Mort Harris Recreation and Fitness Center. The Doris J. & Donald L. Duchene, Sr. Athletic Facility features 35,000 square feet of usable space, four tennis courts and a sprint track. Open recreation hours and rental information (http://rfc.wayne.edu/multipurpose/) for this facility are available online.

Ticket and schedule information is available on the Athletics website (https://wsuathletics.com/) or by calling 313-577-4069. All men’s basketball and football games are broadcast on the Warrior Radio Network at WD TK AM 1400 and FM 101.5 and are also available for free through WDTK the Patriot (https://patriotdetroit.com/). Students are admitted free to all University-controlled WSU athletic events with a One Card.
