

URBAN EDUCATION AND EQUITY STUDIES MINOR

The College of Education offers a Minor in Urban Education and Equity Studies for undergraduate students majoring in other disciplines.

This minor provides an excellent opportunity for students interested in pursuing a career in education, social service and community organizations, in planning, policy, and program development roles, as well as graduate and professional studies centered in urban ecologies.

The Minor in Urban Education and Equity Studies is a minimum of 18 credit hours consisting of at least 8 credits of required courses and 10 credits of elective courses. The 18 credit hours must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5, with no course grade below 'C'. A grade of 'C-minus' or lower is not acceptable.
