

PROFESSIONAL WRITING MINOR

The Professional Writing minor is intended to provide students with training in the essentials of professional writing practices and with experience in composing in common genres of professional and technical communication. The minor requires the completion of a minimum of 18 credits.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Select one of the following introductory courses:		3
ENG 3050	Technical Communication I: Reports
ENG 3060	Technical Communication II: Presentations
Select four courses from the following, two of which must be at the 5000-level:		12
ENG 3200	Grant Writing
ENG 3250	Technical and Professional Editing
ENG 3050	Technical Communication I: Reports
ENG 3060	Technical Communication II: Presentations
ENG 5010	Advanced Expository Writing
ENG 5695	Topics in Writing and Publishing
ENG 5795	Topics in Rhetoric and Writing
ENG 5830	Introduction to Technical and Professional Writing Practices
ENG 5840	Theoretical Approaches to Technical and Professional Writing
Required internship:		3
ENG 5820	Internship Practicum
Total Credits		18