

SOCIETY AND THE ENVIRONMENT MINOR

The Society and the Environment minor provides students with a fundamental understanding of the impact of humans on the environment through exposure to principles of ecology and related sciences, as well as insights derived from a variety of social science and humanities disciplines.

The Society and Environment minor requires a minimum of 18 credits.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses		6-7
ESG 1500	Introduction to Environmental Science
HIS 5540	World Environmental History since 1900
Elective courses (select four from the following list)		12-14
ANT 5140	Biology and Culture
BIO 3500	Ecology and the Environment
ECO 5230	Environmental Economics
ENG 2420	Environmental Writing: Writing about Texts
ESG 3100	Air and Water in Environmental Systems
PH 3500	Environmental Health
PHI 1130	Environmental Ethics
PS 3450	Environmental Policy and Politics
SOC 2205	Sociology of the Environment
UP 4460	Sustainable Cities
UP 5430	Cities and Food
US 2000	Introduction to Urban Studies
Total Credits		18-21