

LAW MINOR

A minor in law is available through the Mike Ilitch School of Business, the Eugene Applebaum College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, the College of Fine, Performing and Communication Arts, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the School of Social Work. The minor in law offers students the opportunity to study law as undergraduates. The minor gives special attention to developing skills in logical and critical thinking. The minors provide training and knowledge relevant for law-related fields, as well as a valuable credential for those seeking to enter those fields. The minor requires three core law classes taught by full-time Law School faculty. Additional requirements for the minor can be found in the school/college sections of the bulletin:
